

HERE'S WHAT SOME ATTENDEES SAID ABOUT THE CASACONFERENCE

COMPOUND FRACTURES: SUBSTANCE ABUSE AND TRAUMA

March 8, 2007, New York City

“Overall a wonderful day! My first CASA event. I’ll be back for the next conference and will definitely tell other clinicians about this terrific resource. Thank you for all your wonderful work. It was a seamless event – very enjoyable.”

Natalie Bush, Licensed Creative Arts Therapist &
CASAC, Bellevue Hospital, New York, NY

“Thank you for doing this conference. With your help our attitudes will follow this science.”

Linda Samuel, MSW, Pastoral Counsel, Washington
Pastoral Counseling Service, Silver Spring, Maryland

“Conference – well-organized – timely – punctual. TERRIFIC!!”

Pat Michaelson, Social Worker (LMSW, CASAC),
Success Counseling Services, Bronx, NY

“Excellent conference as always!”

Eileen Dwyer, Exec. Director of Department of Education, Diocese of Brooklyn, Rego Park, NY

“I find each CASA Conference raising relevant and important issues and offering challenges to present approaches to substance abuse treatment. Thank you.”

Angelo Gambatese, Pastor at St. Stephen of Hungary
Parish, New York, NY

“CASA and you have outdone yourselves with the relevance of this conference.”

Dennis Wisniewski, Clearview Treatment Services,
Lewiston, NY

“CASA’s conferences are always thought-provoking, and (fortunately) prompt thinking on a very fundamental level that encourages us to implement concrete strategies-changes in our day-to-day roles.”

Janet Fiola, School Psychologist at Runnemede
Schools, Glassboro, NJ

“The conference team did a brilliant job. This was a very well-run conference.”

William Downs, Integrative Services Project, Cedar Falls, Iowa
